

Leadership's Role in Sustaining a Lean Culture

September 22-23, 2020 | 8:30 am – 4:30 pm

Location

Manufacturers Resource Center
7200A Windsor Drive | Allentown PA 18106

Internationally renowned teacher and author, Mike Hoseus is coming to the Lehigh Valley to teach on the topic of Executive Lean Business Applications and Leadership's role in sustaining a Lean culture.

This two-day event is all about how to develop yourself and your organization into high-performers that can deliver sustainable business results.

Leadership is the most frequently identified gap in organizations striving toward world class excellence. This comprehensive workshop will explore the role of leadership in a culture transformation, facilitate identification of gaps in your organization and then give practical methodologies and processes to address them.

Course Learning Objectives

- Learn actions to immediately improve your profits and cash flow
- Understand why focus on "cost cutting" in these challenging times is the wrong approach
- Learn why "delegating lean" to others doesn't work, and may hurt your bottom line
- Understand and implement processes and systems to sustain your improvement activity

Agenda includes:

Lean Leadership System – True North and Hoshin Kanri
Connecting Lean Work Systems with your Lean People Development System
Lean Management System
Problem Solving at All Levels

And much more ... (full outline at www.mrcpa.org/events)

Cost: $890/person if registered by September 1st | $990/person after September 1, 2020.
(Includes Continental Breakfast, Lunch and Materials)

International Presenter & Author:

Mike Hoseus, Executive Director, Center for Quality People & Organizations (CQPO)

To register: www.mrcpa.org/events