Executive Lean 2 Day Workshop: Total Business Applications -
How to develop yourself and your organization into a high-performer that can deliver sustainable business results. Leadership is the most frequently identified gap in organizations striving toward world class excellence. This comprehensive workshop will explore the role of leadership in a culture transformation, facilitate identification of gaps in your organization and then give practical methodologies and processes to address them.

Course Learning Objectives

- Learn actions to immediately improve your profits and cash flow
- Understand why focusing on “cost cutting” in these challenging times is the wrong approach
- Learn why “delegating lean” to others doesn’t work, and may hurt your bottom line
- Understand and implement processes and systems to sustain your improvement activity

Agenda includes:

Lean Leadership System – True North and Hoshin Kanri
Connecting Lean Work Systems with your Lean People Development System
Lean Management System
Problem Solving at All Levels

And much more ... (full outline at www.mrcpa.org/events)
